Entry Information

General

- Participants must be financial members of the English & Irish Donkey Society of Australia All Breeds Register Inc or the Affiliated Donkey Society of Aust.
 - The Show organizers reserve the right to combine or amalgamate classes to facilitate smooth running and accommodate ring conditions.
 - JACKS
 - All JACKS over 12 months old must be shown in a stallion chain or bit with a handler aged 18 years or over. Jacks must be under control at all times.
 - All Jacks over the age of 12 months must be confined to a stable when not under the control of the handler (as above) ie if you wish to show a jack, you must rent a stable for the duration of when the jack is on the grounds.
- All Jacks, irrespective of age, are required to be registered with one or both of the above societies.
- No donkey/mule will be allowed to enter the grounds unless it is entered in a class.
 - Entrants in the show may have an assistant in the ring if desired.
 - Any unruly animal may be excused from class.
 - To be eligible to enter a Breed Class donkeys/mules must be registered with the EIDSA All Breeds Register Inc. Registration number and relevant registry must be included on entry form. Dual registered animals must include the appropriate registration number for the breed class in which the animal has been entered
 - Any donkey registered in any appendix of a breed register is eligible for that class.
 - Brood jenny refers to jenny in-foal or jenny with foal at foot.
 - Novelty classes are open to all and aimed at encouraging first-time participants & donkeys/mules.
 - Obstacles may include hay bales, tarpaulin, 40 gallon drums, witches hats, plastic bags, tyres, rails, electric fence posts, post box, gate, 'bridge' etc to lead donkey/mule through, over, halt or back etc.
 - Overuse of crop is forbidden – riders/handlers will be disqualified.
 - Simple pack bags to tie on to saddle will be available to borrow.
 - Further explanation of classes will be mailed out with entry tickets.
 - Riders to wear approved equestrian safety helmet and suitable heel shoes or boots
 - Neat and tidy attire in all classes. Preference for jacket in led classes. No open shoes or sandals in ring.
